

Letter To Readers

Our current auction is the always super popular $5 reserve vintage card auction.

This auction contains a wide selection of collector grade HOFers, stars and Rookie Cards ranging from the 19th century to the 1970s era. The auction opens with three really nice N135 Duke Talk of the Diamond cards, a beautiful 19th century true cabinet card and other related issues.

T206 collectors will see a strong offering, with low grade examples of most of the key HOFers from the set, and several tougher backs with HOFers, including Brown Hindu and Tolstoi. There is a run of lower grade T3 Turkey Reds, and solid offerings of T202 Triple Folders and 1914 B18 Blankets with HOFers.

The auction continues with some tough 1910-1920 issues, including a T222, E106, T200 Fatima Yankees and a Tango Egg Brand. We have many nice cards from the scarce 1923 Exhibit set and a deep offering of collector grade 1933 Goudeys. There are quality Diamond Stars (Lefty Grove 4, Rogers Hornsby 3), the scarce Ted Williams Salutation Exhibit and a run of 1941 Double Play HOFers with Ted Williams, Jimmie Foxx and Hank Greenberg among others.

For post-war baseball collectors, we have some really nice slabbed 1947-66 Exhibit Cards including Aaron, Clemente, two Mantles, Mays and two Jackie Robinsons. There are quality cards and lots from the 1948 – 1951 Bowman issues as well.

1952 Topps collectors will see several stars, including a Willie Mays SGC A and a really nice Jackie Robinson PSA 2. 1953 – 1959 Topps collectors will see Mantles, Rookie Cards and major stars in almost every set. We have an eclectic offering of 1960s and 1970s baseball, with graded Mantles, oddball cards and various complete sets.

The auction concludes with a really nice run of beautiful boxing caramel cards from the 1910 era, other good boxing cards and a run of collector grade football cards, including the key cards from the 1950 Bowman set and a 1955 All American Jim Thorpe.

359 1947 Bond Bread Joe DiMaggio SP
A scarce and now controversial issue, the grading companies do not slab these as far as we know. With rounded corners, this is a short-printed card that was never part of the now questioned Festberg Find from the early 1980s. We believe this to be fully original and period, this has slight wear in the proper places and is clean overall. We are very surprised that the grading companies do not slab the rounded corner cards from this set.
