Big news at Clean Sweep! We are merging companies with Lelands Auctions to form the Collector's First Auction Group. Rather than downsize or shrink, we are looking to expand both brands. Our goal is to provide the best auction experience and results for entire collections of high quality sports memorabilia, cards, autographs and more.

Both companies will both remain the same. We will place consignments in one of our five different style auctions to maximize results and exposure. Lelands and Clean Sweep have a combined seventy years in the sports memorabilia business, offering access to an amazing base of customers, mailing list and marketing opportunities for our consignors.

The current auction is the always popular $5 reserve vintage card auction. This particular auction has all sorts of interesting content, it is one of the deepest that we have ever held in terms of value and balance.

The auction opens with several 19th century cards. We continue with over one hundred different T206 singles. Most are graded, these include collector grade HOFers, Southern Leaguers and a few better backs. Runs of P2 Sweet Caporal Pins and T205 Gold Borders come next, followed by an assorted of 1910-1920 issues.

We have some better 1920s Exhibit cards, several scarce 1920s issues and a wide assortment of collector grade 1933 Goudeys with some key cards. 1930s collectors will also see 1934 Batter Ups, 1934-6 Diamond Stars, 1934 Goudeys and more. We have a nice selection of 1939 – 1941 Play Balls with many key cards and quality group lots. 1940s collectors will see some quality 1947-1966 Exhibits, 1948 Leafs and 1948 Swell Sport Thrills.

For Topps and Bowman collectors, we have many 1948 - 1951 Bowman stars and quality group lots. There are some 1952 Berk Ross stars, several keys from the 1952 Star Cal Decal set and some nice 1952 Topps high numbers.

1950s collectors will see collector grade examples of the key cards from 1953 – 1955 Topps, including 1953 Topps Mantle, Mays and Paige, 1954 Topps Banks and Aaron and 1955 Topps Clemente and Koufax Rookies. 1956 Topps collectors will see many solid key cards, including two Mantles. 1957 – 1959 Topps baseball is well represented with nearly all of the key cards in collector grade, and also quality partial sets.

For 1960s collectors, we have a mix of high grade and collector grade stars from nearly every Topps set, including two Pete Rose Rookie Cards, a Tom Seaver Rookie Card and four Nolan Ryan Rookie Cards. We also have several substantial partial sets and group lots from this era. 1970s baseball collectors will see clean 1970 and 1971 Topps singles, and various complete sets through 1979. Football closes out the auction, including a 1957 Bart Starr Rookie Card.
